AFFIDAVIT OF CLAYTON WIREMAN

I, Clayton Wireman, of legal age, being first duly sworn, states as follows:

1. My name is Clayton Wireman and I reside in Murray, Kentucky.
2. I was married to Bonnie Wireman on June 15, 1968.
3. I am a Plaintiff in the above-captioned action and have asserted my own claim for loss of consortium.
4. Bonnie Wireman died on November 25, 2018.
5. Since the date of her death, I have been grieving her passing and have experienced a difficult time losing my wife of almost 51 years.
6. Without waiving the attorney-client communication privilege, I state that prior to the death of Bonnie Wireman, my wife and I communicated consistently and routinely with our attorney, Jennifer A. Moore, and her law firm, Moore Law Group, PLLC.

7. After the unexpected death of my wife, I did not immediately contact my attorneys, as my focus and attention was on the loss of my wife during that time.

8. I plan to proceed with this lawsuit in my individual capacity and in a representative capacity on behalf of the Estate of Bonnie Wireman.

9. I am currently in the process of setting up her Estate and being appointed administrator of the Estate of Bonnie Wireman in Calloway County, Kentucky.

Further, Affiant sayeth not.
